COCKTAILS

At The Irish Embassy we take great pride in what we put over the bar. All of our cocktails were either handpicked, or in-house crafted by our professional bar team. Whenever possible we use our own infusions, house-made syrups and the freshest ingredients.

Cocktails marked with ◇ have been hand crafted in-house, specifically for the 2018 season. If there is a specific cocktail that you would like made, please ask our experienced bartenders. We will accommodate all requests to the best of our ability.

EMBASSY OLD FASHIONED

Basil Hayden Bourbon, Orange Rind, Simple Syrup & Angostura Bitters

Originally founded in 1881 at a gentleman's club in Louisville, Kentucky, this Old Fashioned uses 2oz's of a Premium Bourbon and a very strong Orange Zest.

◇ THE IRISH NEGRONI

Kilbeggan Irish Whiskey infused with Lemon, Cloves, Honey & Cinnamon, Aperol, Sweet Vermouth & Orange Bitters

The origin of the Negroni is unconfirmed, however most put it back to 1919 Florence, Italy, where Count Negroni asked to strengthen his drink by adding gin. We replaced the gin with Infused Irish whiskey and thus the Irish Negroni was born.

◇ THE DARK ROAST MANHATTAN

Espresso Infused Maker's Mark, Sweet Vermouth & Chocolate Bitters

While nobody can agree exactly how The Manhattan came about, it was invented Between 1860 and 1890 in Manhattan, New York. Traditionally using Canadian Whiskey, we have added our own flavour by infusing bourbon with espresso.

PAPER PLANE

Maker's Mark Bourbon, Amaro Nonino, Aperol & Fresh Lemon Juice

Invented in Chicago in 2007, the Paper Plane is hardly a classic cocktail, although we wish it was! We have kept to the premium recipe to offer the best landing this cocktail can provide.

◇ EL DIABLO

Hornito's Tequila, Port, Lime Juice, House-Made Ginger Syrup & Angostura Bitters

No one is quite sure where the El Diablo originated, however the first reference to it was from 1946. Departing from the original, we have added Port & a House-Made Ginger Syrup to add some spicy smoothness.
