SHOPSY'S A CLASSIC SINCE 1921

The year was 1921. Radio was in its infancy, the Model T Ford was the car to have and Coca-Cola was gaining popularity as a refreshing summer drink. This was the year that Harry and Jenny Shopsowitz opened a small ice cream parlor below their tiny apartment on Spadina Avenue, in the heart of Toronto's garment district.

Little did they know that they were founding an institution. From these meager beginnings, their sons Sam and Izzy built the business, and Sam eventually became known as Canada's 'Corned Beef King.' For over 90 years now Shopsy's has been serving up mouth-watering deli fare to Torontonians and visiting celebrities. We can only imagine how proud Harry and Jenny would be today if they knew how successful a Canadian icon Shopsy's has become.

So sit back, enjoy your meal and taste for yourself how Shopsy's earned its reputation for the freshest, most delectable deli fare anywhere.
